

James Hollingsworth

MEDIA QUOTES

"... a solo singer/guitarist full of charisma and star quality singing his folky/rock numbers... James combined rich vocals, excellent guitar and great humour between numbers, he played a strong set finishing with 2 real gems Faster Than Light and the epic Mothership." - www.getreadytorock.com (re. Winter's End 2010 set)

"one of the best song writers in the country" - www.bristolrock.co.uk

"Hollingsworth is no stranger to Bristol audiences & we have come to expect strongly crafted, beautifully sung songs & stunning guitar work." - www.crackerjack.co.uk

"it is lucky for smaller music venues that James has gone solo! ... a legendary guitar style combined with inspired song writing" - Boars Head, Horsham, W. Sussex

"The evening ended with a blistering set from guitar-shaman and sublime songsmith, James Hollingsworth. He was 'resurrected' for a stunning encore of Led Zep's classic 'In My Time of Dying' – a suitable way to end our evening themed on 'Death & Rebirth'." - Bard of Bath Kevan Wanwaring, Garden of Awen, Bath.

"James's voice is like a seventh string on his guitar, it's uncanny how well the two intermingle with each other and the effect is captivating." - Eleventh Hour, Bath.

"stunning and thought-provoking... a real artist in a sea of imitators. Hollingsworth is UNIQUE and dare I go out on a limb, I don't think he has an equal" - EDEN

"a blissfully original sound." - Lemonrock (mp3 of the week; artist of the week)

"... seemed to border on the celestial... James' performance was captivating. "
- Abbey Mill Folk Festival

"... there are hints of the great Bob Dylan himself in Hollingsworth's music."
- www.thisisbristol.com

"James Hollingsworth is one of my top ten favorite male singer/songwriters of all time!" - Van Casey (Music and Spirit)

"... a man steeped in the troubadour tradition... Hollingsworth paints canvas with his songs, there is something almost visual about them. " - FATEA Records
